THE 1950 BENGAL

SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Sunlit Corner of Lewiston High School

Long after the class of 1950 has gone off into the world to seek life, the sunlit northwest corner of Lewiston High School will remain. Before you leave, Seniors, take one final look at the weeping willow and the red maple trees and remember the times you passed them by. They are just another part of your stay at dear old L. H. S.

Foreword

HERE IT IS . . . your own copy of the 1950 Bengal. It has been the undertaking of the staff of 1950 to bring you the biggest and one of the best yearbooks that have ever been published at Lewiston High School.

Publishing this book, with 104 pages plus the five inserted color division pages, has cost the staff considerable planning and figuring to make all ends meet. The advertising staff, with a goal of two hundred ads from friendly Twin City businessmen, worked constantly from February to the first of April to be able to show a clean balance in the account books.

The staff worked diligently during the 1949-1950 term to bring you this representative flash-back of your school year at LHS. The 120 separate engraving cuts used in the book were a big problem to get ready. For every cut used, the staff had to take three or four pictures of each group despite the twenty-two below zero temperatures, the record snowfall and rain showers during the early spring, besides trying to get people out on time.

For the Seniors we have tried to include every activity and club to which they belonged to provide a memorable record of their stay at Lewiston High School. For the underclassmen we have tried to set a standard by which the books in the future might be just as good as our 1950 Bengal.

Yes, in picture, cartoon, art work and writeup the staff of the 1950 Bengal has labored earnestly to bring you this yearbook. We trust that errors that may have crept in, despite triple-checking, will be minor and that the merits of the book will far overshadow them. Thus another fond and cherished school tradition has been carried out. Today you have the results of the work of the seventeen annual staffers who brought you the 1950 BENGAL. — The Editor.

Dedication

FOR his untiring service to the Lewiston school system since 1931, the annual staff of 1950 takes pleasure in dedicating this yearbook to Mr. Leo Click, assistant superintendent of schools and director of curriculum.

Before assuming his new position last fall, Mr. Click was principal of the Lewiston Junior High School from 1942 to the spring of 1949. Prior to that he was grade school principal at the old Whitman and Webster buildings.

He received his Bachelor of Science degree in 1933 and his Master of Science in 1941, both at the University of Idaho. He has also spent several summer sessions at the University of California and at the University of Southern California.

Mr. Click has been active in community work, especially in the Boy Scouts. He served as the district scouting commissioner from 1942 to 1949 and now is the Lewis-Clark Council commissioner. The presidencies of the Lewiston-Clarkston Kiwanis Club and Idaho Education Association have been conferred upon him.

Main leisure-time interests of Mr. Click are hunting and fishing, in season.

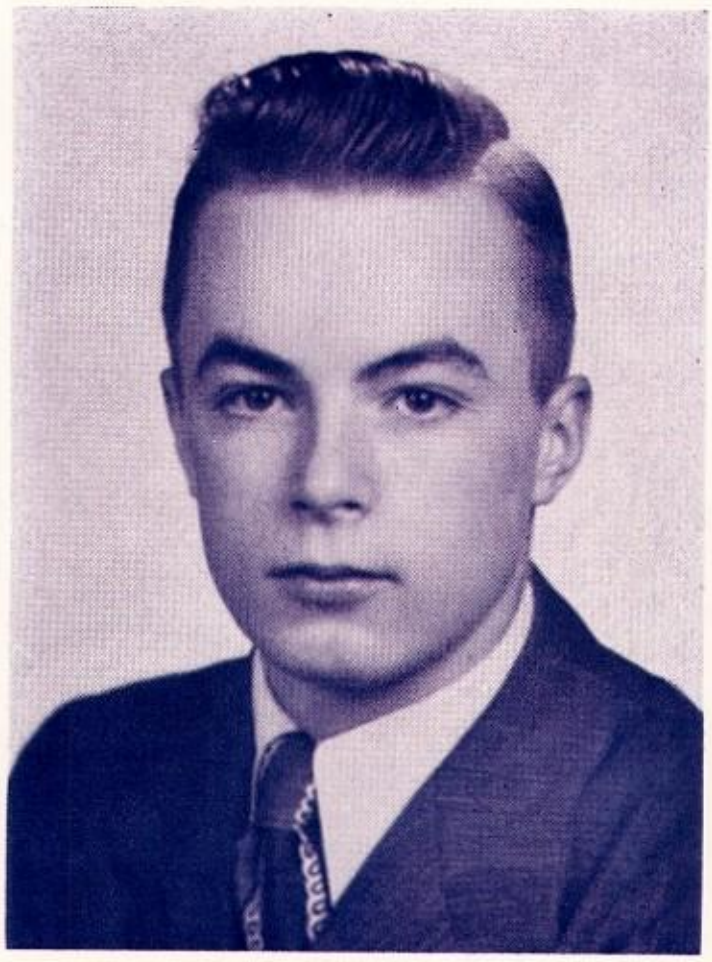
Representative Students

MARILYN EVANS — With a vivacious personality and a smile for all, Marilyn won merits as she presided over a successful year of the Purple & Gold League and participated in many student (coed) activities, which led to her selection as the local D.A.R. representative.

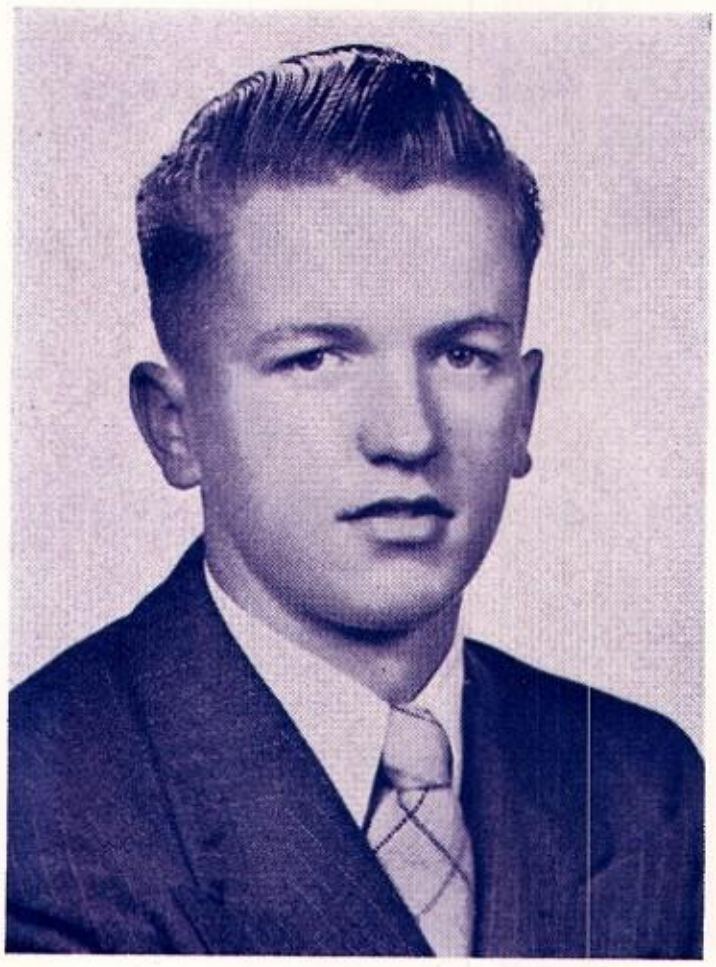
DONNA MARIE SKINNER — In all her activities, Donna Marie found herself in the public eye. During three years at LHS her talent was exemplified not only as a majorette, but also as 1949-50 president of the Honor Society. Her radiant smile will be remembered long after she has left the halls of LHS.

MARIE LITCHFIELD — Besides holding the office of student body secretary, Marie gave freely of her other talents, lending them to many high school play productions, musical groups and work on the annual. Marie was always willing to help where she was needed.

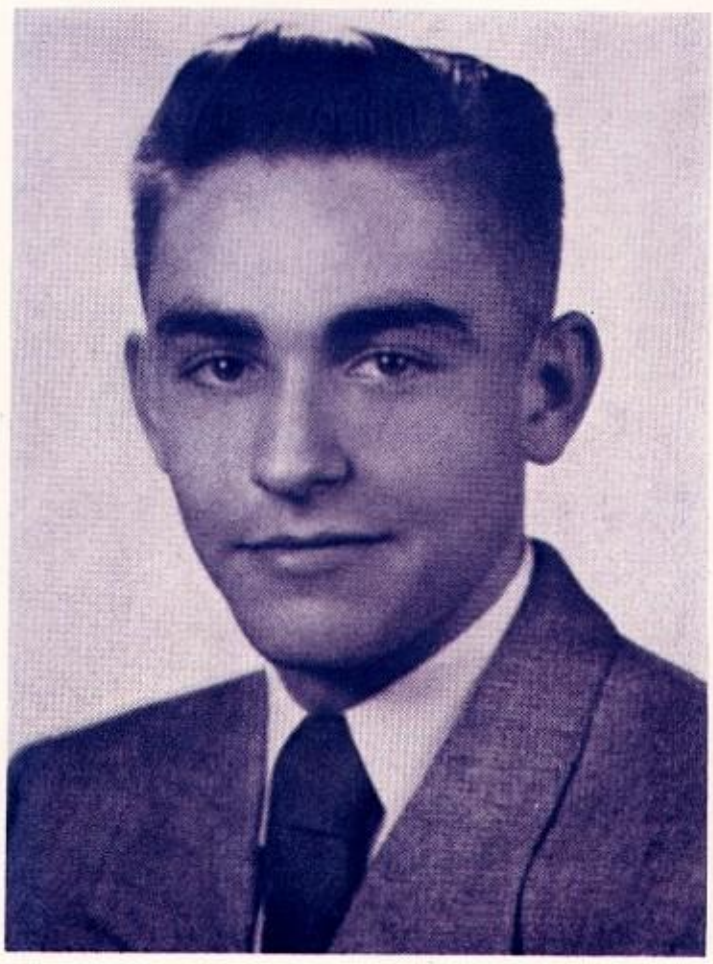
Representative Students



RON BAKER — Starting his high school career as a cross-country man, Ron developed into an all-around student. His pleasing personality, coupled with acting ability, brought him prestige as a first-class debater and orator. Add to these activities his job as student body president and Ron's record in LHS is unsurpassed.



TOM FLYNN—Tom proved his worth as an outstanding athlete in LHS after completing three years of participation in basketball, baseball and track. These activities were only part of Tom's LHS record. He still had time to guide the Boys' Club and the L Club through an unusually successful season.



SAM SKILLERN — By being everybody's pal at LHS, Sam not only carried on as president of Radio-Forensic Club and vice-president of the 1950 Senior Class, but he also found time to participate in the spring sports of basketball and baseball.

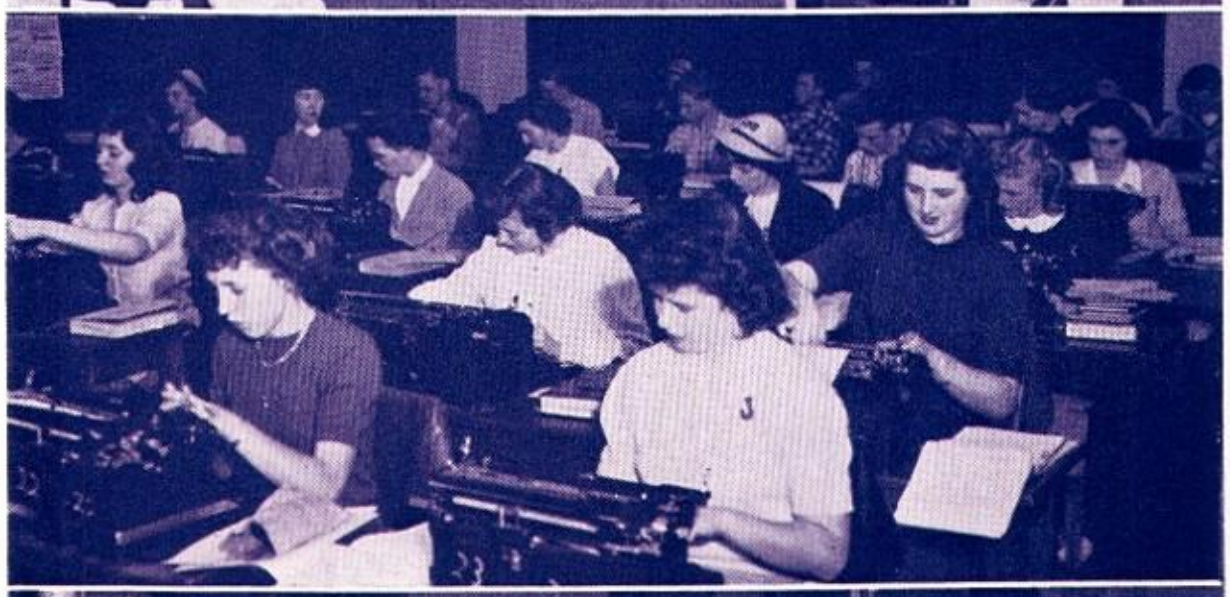
Activities

Mechanics Pause For Snap

Future machinists of the Lewiston-Clarkston area were grouped around their competent instructor, W. C. Frick, at the Lewiston High School machine shop when the cameraman of the 1950 Bengal stopped in to look over their projects.

Science Has Its Marvels

S. S. Scheibe, science instructor at LHS, was giving his second hour physics class a demonstration in the use of the electro-static machine at the moment this candid action shot was snapped.



Forty Words a Minute

Yes, these members of the third hour typing class are shown busily at work during a practice ten-minute time test in the typing room. It looks as if several of the students are having a bad time with their paper. Mrs. Marie Nicholas, instructor, kindly consented to our taking the picture of another LHS class room.

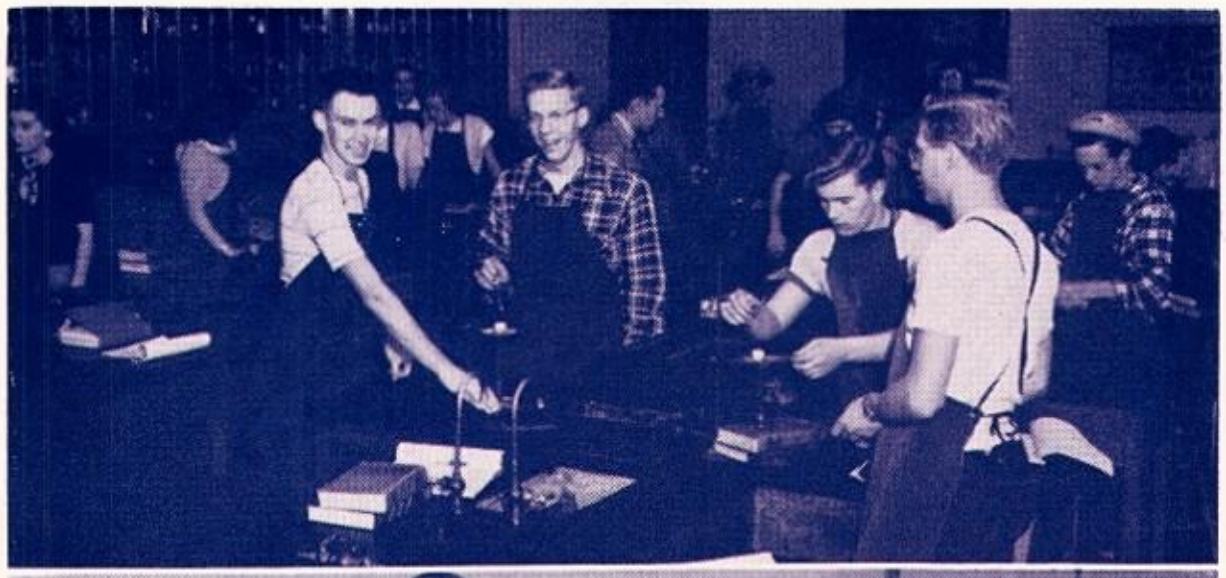
Experience Is the Best Teacher

That motto was used considerably at the LHS wood shop during the 1949-1950 school term. These seventeen ambitious young carpenters were completing the finishing touches on their wall shelves under the direction of Mr. E. C. Reiber.

Activities

Chemists Study Compounds

Mix H_2SO_4 with NaCl and what is the result? The answer to this question and many others was capably answered by chemistry students under the direction of Marion Shinn, instructor, after completing many interesting and some rather "smelly" experiments on lab day.

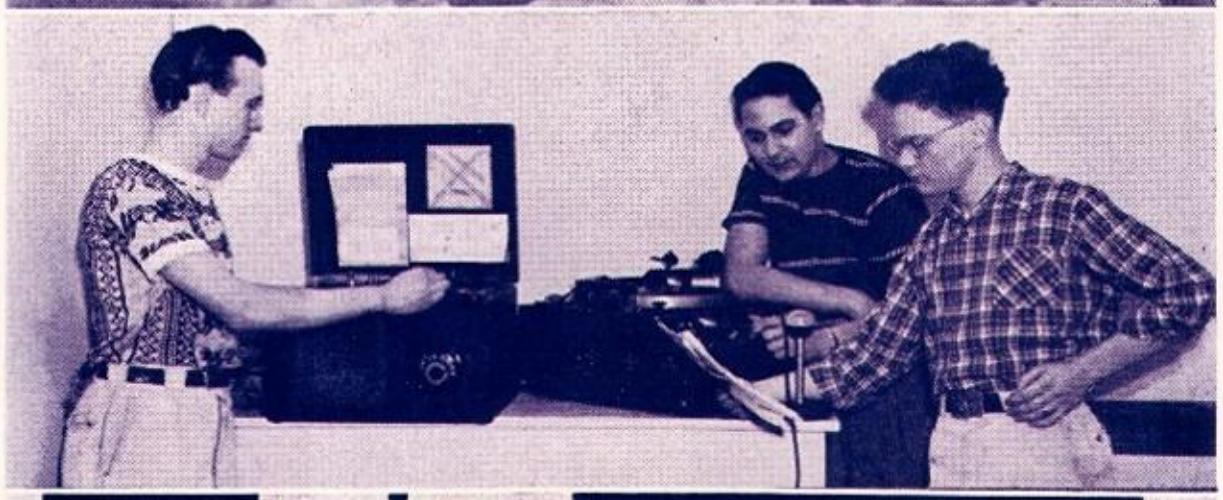


Broadcasters, Station LHS

There's probably a future Don Willson or Glenn Hardy right here in the midst of the second hour Public Speaking class in the LHS broadcasting booth, but we just don't recognize him today. Miss Nell Robinson, speech coach, trained these sixteen speakers for the weekly radio programs aired over KRLC.

Radio Technicians Delve

Noel Berkeley, Bob Kincaid, and Warren Axtell were the three members of the Electronics Club responsible for the technical end of the radio broadcasts from Room 28. Under the direction of Mr. Ed Sanman, Jr., a new broadcast amplifier was installed in the LHS studio.



Lunch Time About Here

Remember all the rainy days when you ate your lunch in the cafeteria and you always wondered who prepared the delicious meals. Well now you can take a look at the six persons who were responsible for the preparation, serving, and cleaning up of the cafeteria throughout the 1949-1950 school year.

Council Builds Assembly Projects

In Student Council, originators of more original assemblies included Ron Baker, president; Ray Copeland, vice-president; Marie Litchfield, secretary-treasurer, and Principal Kenneth Hill, advisor. To promote better assemblies during 1949-50, each club sponsored an assembly. The noon program continued last year with additional entertainment, including the ping pong tournaments, square and folk dancing, and movies.

Members of Council supported and promoted the various spring sports. Membership was limited to Student Body officers, club presidents, and home room representatives. Every Tuesday morning at 8, these students could be found trying to keep awake discussing the problems and activities of the school.

Boys No Match for P-G Sadies

"Run for your lives, men," was echoed in the halls of LHS as November 12, date of the Purple & Gold League's Sadie Hawkins dance, approached. Under the supervision of Miss Sarah Rice, advisor; Marilyn Evans, president; Clarice Pike, vice-president; Pat Bartlett, secretary, and Faith Luther, treasurer, that dance was one of the big social events of the year.

The club sponsored the Junior Red Cross, Christmas Boxes, and March of Dimes drives. To promote better understanding between teachers and students, the P & G League gave a tea during Teachers' convention, and a Valentine tea.

The main spring project of the Girls Club was the sponsorship of Senior Day on Friday, March 17. All members of the Senior Class attended school dressed in suits and sports clothes and later in the day attended the St. Patrick's tea given by the P and G League in the cafeteria.

Pepsters

Student
YAC Directors

"Are You Ready?"

"Yea man!" was the answer to the question that cheer leaders Virginia Shoemake, Bill Zirbel, Mary Brown, Jim Lambert and Pat Church asked students so often during 1949-50.

These five active cheer leaders arranged all the pep assemblies, and they led all the yells at the football and basketball games. It was their task to promote school spirit and good sportsmanship.

"Let's Dance"

The students of LHS spent much of their time on weekends dancing, playing ping pong or pool at the YAC. The YAC committee, under the supervision of Roy Pearson, advisor; Gil Estes, president; Gerald Parks, vice-president; Mary Ruddell, secretary, and Shirley Turner, treasurer, sponsored dances after all home games.

The Community Chest drive, Salvation Army food campaign, and March of Dimes drive were also projects of this committee. Dances held in the Youth Activity Center included the Halloween, Christmas, Valentine, and Sock Hop.

New members are voted in by the old members. Marilyn Evans and Don Broughman also were members on the YAC committee.

"Blue Moon" Ball Theme

Amid frosted pine trees and blue, white and silver streamers, some 65 couples danced December 2 to Fev Pratt's orchestra at the Senior Ball of the class of 1950.

Carrying out the theme "Blue Moon," the bandstand held the eyes of all spectators as it was decked out in tinfoil with a blue moon overhead. A silver and blue lighted stand held the punch bowl in one corner, while the opposite corner displayed an imitation lake.

Under the supervision of Jim Rowland, president; Sam Skillern, vice-president; Margie Harris, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Queen Holbrook, advisor, the dance left wonderful memories for all who attended.

Students Join National Order

Thirty-nine members of the senior high Commercial Club voted early this year to accept an invitation to become a Chapter of the National Future Business Leaders of America.

Eight girls made a survey of the commercial machines used in various business offices, and all the members participated in candy sales. Proceeds from sales helped to buy adjustable tables for typing classes.

Officers during 1949-50 were Dora Gene Leffingwell, president; Lois Woods, vice-president; Margie Harris, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Marie Nicholas, advisor.

The emblem of this club was composed of a pin with "Commercial Club" written on it, and a year-guard. Members worked to better the Commercial Department, and they also assisted teachers in commercial work.

F. H. A. Supports French Orphan

Nicole Caron, an 11-year-old French orphan, adopted three years ago, inspired FHA girls to send her several boxes of soap, clothes, packaged food, clothing and toys. Other club projects included serving dinner during the Teachers' convention, polishing school trophies, sponsoring an assembly, and a joint meeting with Clarkston FHA girls.

The pin for FHA members during 1949-50 was composed of the letters FHA and the emblem of a home in the hands of youth. Leaders were Pat Huntley, president; Marlene Haag, vice-president; Louise Imthurn, secretary; Melvine Hill, treasurer; and Miss Pauline Schaplowsky, advisor.

Aims of the members were to realize the importance of the home and family life; to learn to enjoy homemaking duties; to develop leadership and provide recreation for members; to promote international good will; and, above all, to serve others.

Publishers of Bengal's Purr

Under the supervision of R. L. Holbrook, two journalism classes published 15 issues of The Bengal's Purr during the 1949-50 term. Through the efforts of student journalists, LHS guys and gals were kept informed of the happenings and whereabouts of prominent persons around the school.

Second-year journalism and managerial students included:

Annual Staffers Complete Job

As spring rolled around, publications students were happy that the 1950 Bengal finally had been completed. "Weather permitting" was a familiar phrase when picture schedules were read. Weather didn't usually permit, but difficulties were overcome.

Yearbook personnel who contended with these problems to bring you the 1950 Bengal included the following:

"Start The Broadcast"

Members of Radio Forensic Club Tuesdays put on the weekly broadcast. These included plays, public service programs, skits, and public speaking aids achieved from taking that course.

This organization improved the radio room equipment, sponsored three novelty one-act plays for assemblies, and participated in the district speech festival.

Officers were Sam Skillern, president; Dave Powell, vice-president, and Velma Torgerson, secretary-treasurer. Miss Nell Robinson was advisor.

Aims of this club included improvement of speech qualities of all members to present better radio entertainment, advertising school activities, and developing the communicative arts and skills.

Scientists Make Radio Crystal Sets

In a first step in exploration of the field of electronics, members of the Electronics Club undertook individual manufacture of crystal radio sets in 1949-50. Under the direction of Edward Sanman, the club was organized two years ago to provide an outlet for budding scientists interested in electrical phenomena.

Members of Electronics Club included Noel Berkeley, president; Edwin Utz, vice-president; Warren Axtell, secretary-treasurer; Leon Berkeley, Bob Kincaid, Stirl Isom, Jim Gilbertz and Allen Kim.

These young scientists repaired and operated all school electronic equipment, installed a permanent amplifier in the gym, and constructed the complete radio studio in Room 28.

Completing a successful year, the club promoted knowledge of radio and allowed interested students to work with radio equipment under supervision.

Reinder Sponsorers

Yuletide decorations could not have been amiss last year at LHS. Loyalty Squad provided the reindeer apparatus atop the senior high building. Other projects included a toy collection at Christmas, movie dance in October, and the sale of pep hats, Bengal decals, schedule pencils, and athletic programs. During 1949-50 the Loyalty Squad purchased pictures for study hall, a Da-Lite screen, and an Opaque projector.

Officers of Loyalty Squad were Dick Auer, president; Faith Luther, vice-president; Lois Woods, secretary; Dora Gene Leffingwell, treasurer; and Orvell Shore, advisor.

Ticket Salesmen

L Sales, under the advisorship of Prin. Kenneth Hill, advanced the sale of tickets to various school activities. Members of the club during 1949-50 included Patsy Hart, Terrye Willey, Dave Clements, Sam Skillern, Ron Pingree, Bert Zimmerly, Bill Zirbel, Gerald Parks, Bud Nelson, Shirley Turner and Jeanette Rawls.

Santa's Aides Are Busy Gals

Playing first assistants to Santa was one of their services in 1949-50 that brought the L-Cubers a memorable year. In formals they ushered for the Senior play, All-High play, and Community concerts. Appearing in their neat black and white uniforms, L-Cube members ushered for the Teachers' convention, and the Music festival.

Last fall an informal initiation was held in the cafeteria for new members. In tune with the Christmas spirit, Captain Barbara Blumstrom gave a fireside party. Barb's aides were First Lieutenant Betty Jean Poteet, Second Lieutenant Bettye Judd. Miss Nell Robinson has been L-Cube advisor for three years.

Members of this honorary service club are elected on the basis of scholarship, citizenship, leadership and loyalty. L-Cubers are pledged to promote the democratic spirit in all its activities.

Press Club Aids Publication

A busy year has come to a close for forty members of the Lewis-Clark Press Club. Press Clubbers heard talks by Bill Johnston, managing editor of the Lewiston Morning Tribune, and other journalists, toured the Tribune office to see the operations of the daily paper, and presided as the President school in the Panhandle Scholastic Press Association Conference at Coeur d'Alene this spring.

Robert L. Holbrook completed his fifteenth year as advisor. His assistants included Mick Gruell, president; Gil Estes, vice-president, and Rosemary Grow, secretary-treasurer.

Quill & Scroll Is Publications Honor Group

Thirty-two Lewiston high school students were admitted to the International Quill & Scroll during 1949-50. Holdover members were Gene Hamblin, Dave Clements, Marilyn McIlhargey and Gil Estes. Students passing qualifications included Joyce Kronkright, Barbara Blumstrom, Marietta Cloos, Jess Lasswell, LaQueta Lawrence, Doris Fenton, Marjorie Harris, Donna Marie Skinner, Velma Torgerson, Norma Nielsen, Mary Knapton, Roberta Merriman, Alice Rae DeShazer, Shirley Shull, Mary Brown, Jackie Zehner, Mary Ruddell, Shirley Turner, Betty Field, Patty Bartlett, Rosemary Grow, Faith Luther, Betty Fix, Mike Cummerford, Cora Stickney, Betty Riggs, Lois Woods, Dorothy Strehlou, Sally Pearson, Barbara Grant, Ron Baker, Marie Litchfield and Pat Cameron. R. L. Holbrook was advisor.

Students were judged on scholarship, citizenship, contribution to publications, and leadership. Members of this organization wore gold-filled key pins and received a subscription to the Quill & Scroll magazine.

Student Secretaries Busy

These girls were the teachers' secretaries during 1949-50. They helped the teachers with daily tasks besides typing tests and other papers.

Office Girls Learn Practice

Seven office girls kept busy during the 1949 - 50 term collecting attendance slips and performing other chores for Prin. Kenneth Hill and Secretary Ida Silflow. They included La Queta Lawrence, Elsie Young, Kathleen Luper, Jane Kessler, Mary Jane Martin, Maxine Berlinghoff and Betty Mae Weatherby.

Librarians Study Procedure

Under the direction of Miss Ina Carlson, sixteen student librarians kept the library quiet and in proper order throughout 1949-50.

Operators Are Unseen Workers

Have you ever wondered who operated the educational films you enjoyed during class periods? These students, movie operators, have given their services for the benefit of others. William Tierney, advisor for nine years, kept supplies of latest educational films for all departments in school.

Officers of Projectors Club included Dick Zintek, president; Dick Auer, vice-president, and Allan Kim, secretary-treasurer. The club was composed of twenty-four members who were equalified scholastically and were willing to give their services to the school.

"Do You Believe in a Plurality or Majority Vote?"

This question and several others faced debate mainstays which included Ron Baker, Larry Hyer, Jennie Lee De Risio, La Queta Lawrence, Marietta Cloos, Marilyn Evans, Barbara Blumstrom and Shirley Shull. Dick Zintek, Tom Phillips, Grace Morgan, Velma Torgerson and Ruby Farrell composed the remainder of the 1949-50 debate team.

Debaters participated in Bi-State League debates, District Tournament held at NICE, and the Spring Festival. Miss Nell Robinson coached the 1949-50 debate teams.

"Brains" Play Cupid

Substituting as cupids, the Lewiston chapter of the National Honor Society sponsored the Sweetheart dance, February 11. Two initiations, one formal and the other informal, also were held in 1949-50.

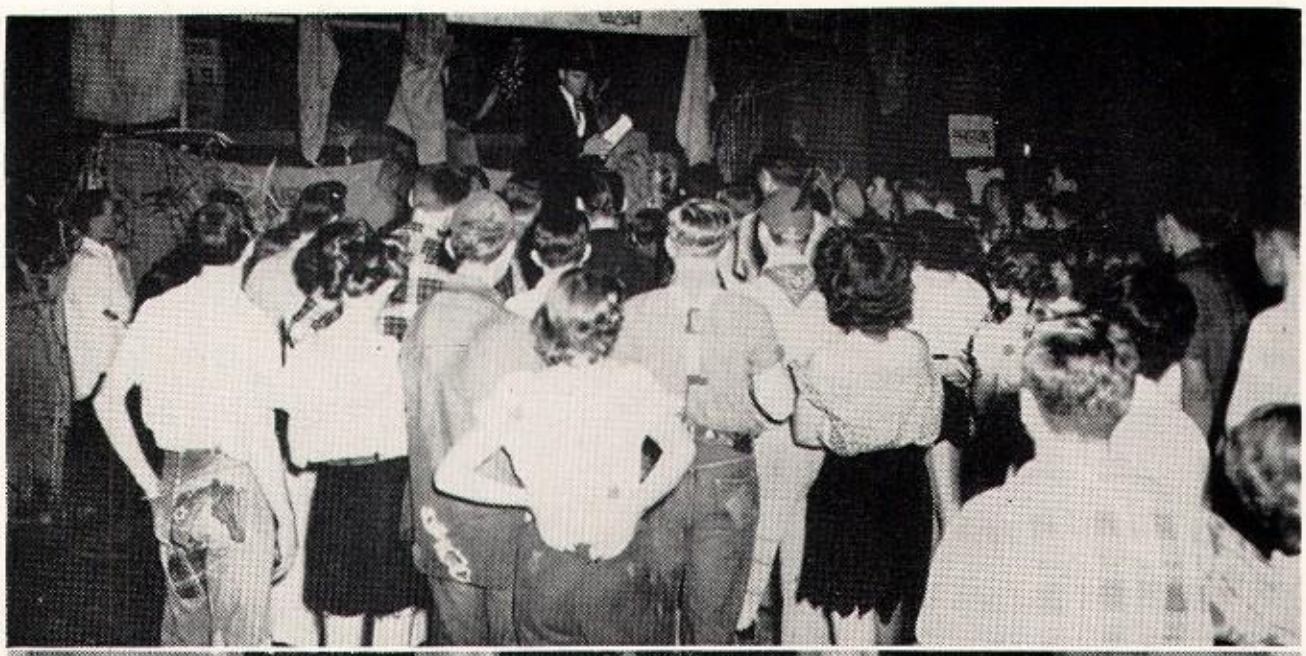
Membership regulations were based on scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The National Honor Society pins have a flaming torch, a symbol of progress.

Officers of LHS chapter for the year were Donna Marie Skinner, president; Jim Rowland, vice-president, and Gene Hamblin, secretary-treasurer. Miss Verna Stahlhut has been advisor for thirteen years.

"Scientists" Watch Experiments

Thirty-three members of Science Honor Club toured the U. of I. science building last spring to see how experiments were carried on. Under the supervision of Bud Gall, president; Richard Gray, vice-president; Marietta Cloos, secretary; Jim Rouse, treasurer, and Edward Sanman, advisor, the group learned many new scientific facts.

To be eligible for membership, candidates must have received at least a B average for the semester in chemistry or physics. Members showed an interest in new scientific discoveries throughout 1949-50.



Sadies Cut Capers

Sadie Hawkins Dance, sponsored by the Girls' Club, found many Daisy Maes and Lil' Abners enjoying themselves.

Students Arrange Prom

Under the supervision of Bert Zimmerly, president; Bud Nelson, vice-president; Louise Imthurn, secretary; Orval Shoemake, treasurer, and Marion Shinn, advisor, the Junior Class sponsored the annual Junior Prom with the theme, "China Town."

Christmas Dance Colorful

The Christmas Dance was held at the YAC, sponsored by the YAC Committee.

Sweethearts Dance

Amid red and white streamers many couples danced at the February Sweetheart Dance, sponsored by the Honor Society.

Dear Mrs. Hoaglin,

Baton Gals Get Around

Great grandmother came West in a covered wagon, but "the dolly majorettes" journeyed 600 miles on bus to perform at the Lewiston-Boise football game in November. They were also guests at a University of Idaho basketball game.

Under the direction of Mrs. May Miesen and leadership of Melvine Hill, the baton twirlers participated in public functions, marched at football and basketball games, parades and the Spring music festival.

Chosen for ability, the group included: Melvine Hill, Donna Skinner, Janie Kessler, Shirley Turner, Eleanor Storm, Jo Ann Ayers and Delores Nowling.

Bandsters Win Accolades

Journeying to Boise as guests at the Lewiston-Boise football game November 4 was one of the highlights for 64 members of the 1949-50 A Band. Under the supervision of J. Ross Woods, the unit accompanied Santa on his visit to Lewiston in December, exhibited its talent at the Lewiston Roundup in September, and appeared at football and basketball games. The instrumentalists presented a spring music concert for the public, and the group received superior ratings at the April North Idaho Spring Festival.

Individual playing ability and cooperation were the qualifications for membership. Officers were Richard Woods, president; Jess Lasswell, vice president; and Joan Sue Flomer, secretary.

A BAND REPRESENTATIVES—Outstanding members of the senior section of the A Band during the 1949-1950 term were Bob Roberts, drums; Joan Sue Flomer, trumpet; Richard Westgate, trombone; Delmer Storey, bass horn; Darrel Nichols, saxaphone; Lois Greer, glockenspiel; and Warren Axtell, clarinet.

B Majorettes Learn Routines

Chosen according to their twirling and marching ability, the B Majorettes appeared in many school activities. They marched at football and basketball games, various parades, and participated in the Spring music festival.

The girls included Carol Caragio, leader; Bonnie Westfall, Donna Bershaw, Shirley Wilson, Alene Jones, Virginia Thompson and Yvonne Cloninger.

B Band Plays Important Role

In flashy blue and white uniforms, the B band entertained at basketball games, marched in parades, and played at Grangeville in the Class B Concert in March. The unit took part in the North Idaho Spring Music Festival April 27-29. Officers for 1949-50 were Buddy Baldwin, president; Billy Bracht, vice-president; Alice Sweeney, secretary; Tom Jensen, council representative, and J. Ross Woods, director.

Orchestra Gives Performances

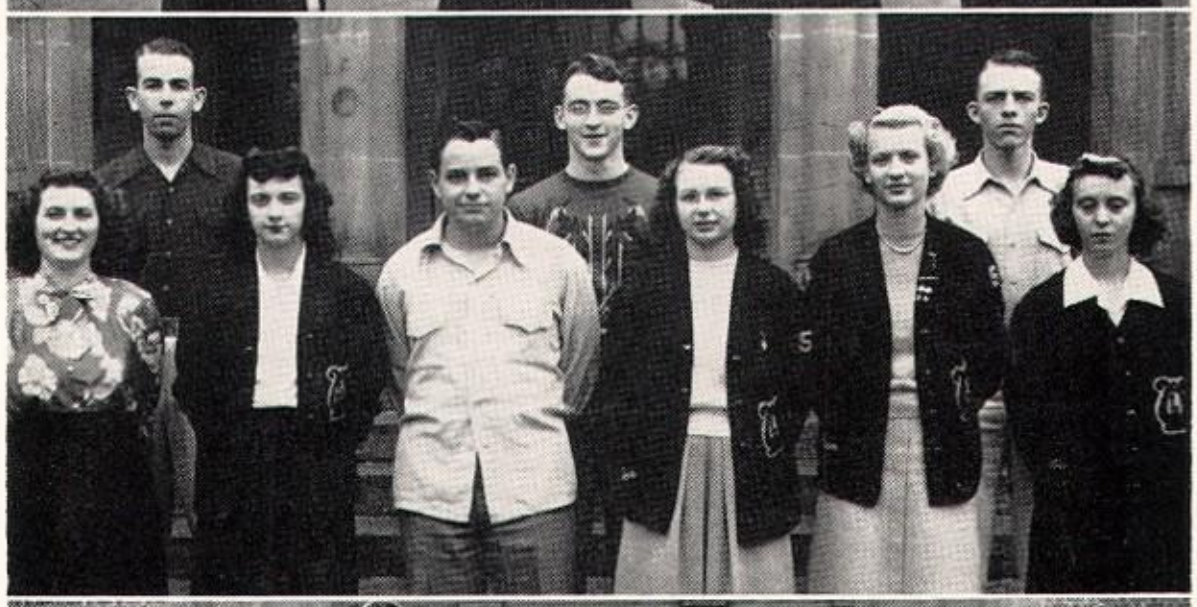
Practicing soft music, 39 orchestra members performed at the P. F. I. Christmas program, played for the Kiwanis Kapers, and participated at the North Idaho Music Festival April 27-29. For their last duty they played at baccalaureate and graduation. Officers for 1949-50 were Bob Roberts, president; Richard Westgate, vice-president; Joyce Kronkright, secretary; Bea Shinn, student council representative, and J. Ross Woods, director.

Clarinet Quartet

Chosen for their playing ability, Joyce Kronkright, Lois Greer, Warren Axtell and Leora Hagedorn appeared at various public functions, and won superior ratings in the spring music festival as the clarinet quartet.

Band Members Win Letters

Jess Lasswell presided over nine Band Lettermen this year. Leora Hagedorn was vice - president and Joyce Kronkright, secretary - treasurer. Other members of the club were Delmer Storey, Bob Roberts, Richard Westgate, Dianne Richards, Lois Greer and Bea Shinn. The group was advised by J. Ross Woods.



Trumpet Trio Blows Way to Fame

Earl Evers, Rodney Hoioos and Joan Sue Flomer, chosen for their playing ability, made up the trumpet trio. The trumpeteers won high ratings at the spring music festival and entertained at other civic functions.

The Boys from Hamburg

"The Hungry Five," alias the German Band, performed at various assemblies during the school term. The group consisted of Delmer Storey, leader; Bob Love, Richard Westgate, Noel Berkeley and Warren Axtell.

A Cappella Sings Seasonal Numbers

Singing seasonal numbers, the A Cappella choir made its debut December 20, 1949, at the Christmas Concert open to the public. The 63 members were also heard at a Christmas assembly in December.

In the second semester the group provided music for the Thespian one-act play February 17, presented a vocal concert April 25 for the community, and sang at the North Idaho Spring Music Festival April 27, at which they received high ratings.

Stimulation of a wider knowledge of music and a creation of interest in music were the aims and objectives of the choir.

Perry Williams was the vocal instructor. Officers were Eddie Martin, president; Joan Sue Flomer, choir manager; Joan Davis, secretary.

Christmas Concert Was Success

A Cappella Choir, assisted by the Junior High Glee Club and the Girls' Glee Club, sang carols and hymns at the Christmas concert given before a capacity crowd on December 20. The Christmas story was read by Larry Hyer, with the junior high group singing after each short reading.

The vocal groups also appeared at the Spring Music Festival April 27-29, when 800 music students from Northern Idaho and Eastern Washington assembled at the Banana Belt city for their annual talent showings.

Girls' Duet Makes Many Appearances

One of the most active singing units was the Girls' Duet. Chosen for their singing ability, Clarice Pike and Carol Bird appeared at many school assemblies, social and civic functions during the year.

They also took part in the Spring Music Festival April 27-29, and the Spring Vocal Concert April 25. Mary Sweeney was their accompanist. Perry Williams was the vocal instructor.

Glimpses from the Senior Play

Lights! Camera! Action!

Grandma's high-buttoned shoes and Great Uncle Oscar's celluloid collar added an aroma to the play, "Meet Me in St. Louis," a three-act comedy presented by the Senior class November 18 and 19, 1949, under the direction of Mrs. Nadine Handy. Costumes corresponded to the 1904 era with boys in high-buttoned shirts and celluloid collars. Girls were attired in high-buttoned shoes and fancy dresses.

Mr. Smith, a St. Louis businessman, was played by Larry Hyer, and Mrs. Smith by Betty Poteet. Their daughters were portrayed by Marietta Cloos, Marie Litchfield, Donna Skinner and Pat Cameron. Ron Baker acted in the role of their son, Lon; Shirley Shull portrayed the cook.

Jennie Lee De Risio appeared as a neighbor, Mrs. Waughop. Pat Huntley took the part of Ida Boothby, and Rita Paolini the part of Lucille Pentard, a girl from the east. Don Broughman was cast as the boy who was smitten by one of Mr. Smith's daughters.

Another of Mr. Smith's daughters was greatly attracted by Fred Gregory, played by Paul Matteson. Mr. Dodge, Mr. Smith's boss, was portrayed by Jim Lambert. Mr. Duffey was enacted by Ron Funke.

Mom-Daughter Feud for Man in All-High Play

Weren't Shirley Turner and Sally Mace good mothers in the All-High Play, "Mother Is a Freshman," presented March 31 and April 1, by a double cast? Remember the "daughters," alias Mary Ruddell and Shirley Smith, feuding with their mothers over the young zoology professor played by Bob Love and Gene Baldeck. The college coeds, intrigued by the mother-and-daughter feud, were enacted by Velma Torgerson, Donna Skinner, Marie Litchfield, Margaret White, Norma Nielsen and Jackie Zehner in the Saturday night cast, and Miriam Williamson, Joan DeArment, Barbara Grant, Darlene Simpson, Judy Worden and Joanne Davis in the Friday night show. Betty Poteet and Pat Hines portrayed the house mother.

The four boys appearing in both performances were Pete Busch, Don Broughman, Ray Overman and Mike Busch.

Jolly St. Nicholas Visits L. H. S.

Santa's visit to LHS during the yuletide season, atop the high school building, was a new event for 1949.

Spotlights illumined the display, which received much favorable comment from passersby.

The project was suggested by Principal Kenneth Hill. Loyalty Squad, with Orvell Shore as advisor, provided the financial backing. Mechanical operation was built by machine shop boys, under the direction of W. C. Frick. Shop classes, advised by Mr. E. C. Reiber, cut out the silhouettes, and the high school artists, supervised by Miss Lydia Sloan, applied the finishing touches.

The reindeer danced and pranced mechanically with the sleigh bouncing along against the dark December night background.

Colony Club Completes Busy Year

During the 1949-50 season, the Colony Club, under the direction of Miss Lydia Sloan, assisted the Loyalty Squad in painting Santa and his reindeer for the Christmas season, helped sponsor the Art Honor Society, and earned money for art activities, and painted posters for various school advertisements.

An interest in art activities was the qualifications of an art student for membership.

Officers for the year were Janette Huff, president; Bill Kim, first vice-president; Mary Ann Bean, second vice-president; Ruth Spaulding, secretary, and Maxine Berlinghoff, treasurer.

Artists Dabble With Lipstick

Changing the lipstick on the Spanish senoritas in the renovation of the student murals in the high school auditorium was one of the many art services accomplished by the Lambda Chapter of the National Art Honor Society. Members also raised money for the art scholarship, and held sixteen exhibits of student work.

Membership in the organization required a total of 200 points in art services. Candidates presented an individual showing of their drawings. Giving special recognition to the more talented students and developing appreciation of painting and architecture were some of the main objectives.

Officers were Maxine Berlinghoff, president; Don Broughman, vice-president; Janette Huff, secretary; Ruth Spaulding, treasurer; Miss Lydia Sloan, advisor.

1949-50 L Club

JOHN EVANS—Fresh out of college, John shaped the Bengal A grid squad into a rough and tough ball team. Coach Evans holds a B.S. degree in education administration from the University of Idaho. Besides coaching, he taught Physical Education.

WES LATHEN—Being head mentor of the A basketball artists and track team kept this energetic coach busy. Mr. Lathen holds a B.S. degree in education from the University of Idaho and an M.A. from Washington State College. Coach Lathen taught shop in addition to working with athletics.

BILL EIMERS—Coaching the Bengal A grid line, mentoring the Tiger B squad, divot diggers and teaching U. S. History, this newcomer to LHS was a busy man in 1949-50. Mr. Eimers holds a B.S. degree from the University of Idaho in education.

ROY SMITH—Scheduling Bengalville's sports programs and coaching baseball every spring has gained him admiration from the students of LHS. Mr. Smith holds a B.S. degree from the University of Idaho.

MRS. MAY MIESEN—G.A.A., Majorettes and girls' P.E. held the attention of Bengalville's only woman coach. Mrs. Miesen was advisor of the Girls' L Club. She holds a B.S. degree from the University of Idaho. Coach Miesen developed a good tennis team of LHS coeds.

WALTER GRAVES—Three years at LHS have made Coach Graves a friend to many students. He has been one of the main cogs in the noise department of pep rallies. Mr. Graves taught history and guided the B football players in 1949.

Golden Bengals Learn Football Tactics

A 90-yard runback on a Clarkston kickoff by halfbacks Jim Rouse and Tom Phillips not only highlighted the first of two Twin City clashes but sparked the spirit of the 1949 edition of the Golden Bengal gridiron squad.

Although the first tussle ended in an 18-18 tie, the sodhogs from Bengalville had displayed some of the finest ball witnessed by fans during the entire season.

A squad coaches John Evans and Bill Eimers started the season with four returning lettermen and 32 experience-shy hopefuls. Irving Kalinoski, Jim Rouse, Jim Rowland and Bud Gall were the only gridsters who had won letters on the 1948 Bengal club.

The LHS grid machine rolled over the Central Valley Bears, at Lewiston, 13-12 September 23 in the season opener. Bengal guard Rich Woods and center Bill Stellmon sparked the win.

Moscow Bears felt the power of the driving Bengals September 30, when the Lewiston club spanked them with a 32-13 defeat at Bengal Field.

Jim Rouse and Byron Gage led the Bengals to a 6-0 win over the Greyhounds at Pullman on October 21. A last-minute drive by the hounds was stopped on the Bengal six-inch line and the gun ended the game a few seconds later.

The inexperienced squad suffered defeats from West Valley; Boise, at the capital; Walla Walla, on the Blue Devils' home field; and Clarkston. In most of these games the Bengals were faced with more experienced, bigger rivals.

The new Inland Empire Football League matched the Bengals against the Vikings of Coeur d'Alene for the first time in a number of years. The Lake City club came out on the long end of the 32-13 score.

LHS players made the longest trip of their season November 5 when they traveled to the state capital to play the Boise Braves. Although the Bengals lost the game, they won the admiration of the Boiseans for their fine sportsmanship and manners.

Sixteen members of the 1949 grid squad probably will be back next fall to fill positions on the '50 pigskin crew.

They are: Orval Shoemake, tackle; Bill Stellmon,center; Bud Gall, tackle; Don McIntyre, quarterback; Dwight St. Marie, guard; Don Tank, guard; Gene Baldeck, fullback; Burch Roark, tackle; Kenny Clark, halfback; Jim Turner, guard, and Bob Packwood, center.

Byron Gage, center; Don St. Marie, guard; Ron Pingree, fullback; Paul Wilcox, fullback, and Ron Crozier, tackle, are other hopefuls for next fall's team.

B Footballers Prove Strength

Holding the Bantam Chicks scoreless in three encounters and piling up 50 points themselves, the B gridders turned in a fine record for the 1949 season.

Fur and feathers flew in the triple intercity games, but the LHS B's couldn't be stopped. Final scores in the clashes were 19-0, 12-0 and 19-0. The Moscow Cubs fell before the onslaughting Kittens 37-7. Kendrick and Genesee edged the B's in close games. In the Genesee game the Bulldogs kicked a field goal in the dying minutes of the game to win 9-6.

Coaches Walter Graves and Bob Williams led the team to a 4-2 season.

Gals Learn Golf — A new sport was offered LHS coeds this year. Under the supervision of Bill Eimers, gals were swinging golf clubs for the first time at LHS in many years. Approximately 15 girls turned out for golf, with only the top four playing against other schools. At the time the annual went to press, only two games were scheduled — one with Clarkston and one with Pomeroy.

Divot Diggers Have Active Season — Bengal divot diggers shined up their clubs and crossed the Snake River April 22 to play the nine-hole Clarkston course against Pomeroy, Walla Walla, Moscow and Clarkston squads. May 13, the Tiger clubsters journeyed to Pomeroy to compete with a group of top teams from the Inland Empire. Coach Bill Eimers guided the crew, which included Mike Cummerford, Dave Powell, Tom Flynn, Bud Nelson, Dave Troy, Jim Pingree, Dick Torsen, Harry Grasser and Kay Berry.

Bengals Hot In State Tournament

Lady Fortune smiled on the Golden Bengals against the majority of predictions at the State Tourney at Boise, March 15-18, and the LHS club walked off with the state's runner-up trophy.

Pepped-up Bengals, with the will to win, downed Jerome in the opening tilt on March 15. Jack Fairley and Tom Flynn led the Tiger pack to the 42-35 triumph over the South Idaho casaba crew. The Lewiston cagers let go with both barrels on the next afternoon against a Caldwell quintet. Flynn, sharp-shooting guard, again led his teammates to the victory column by canning 19 points. Final score 41-33. Their toughest contest of the entire season was against the Nampa Bulldogs in the final game. The Nampans, who won every game during their hoop stanza, proved too accurate for the Bengals and won 52-34.

The flashy tournament record completed an up-and-down season. Bengal mentor, Wes Lathen, said, "Our team faced some of the best squads in the Northwest in a tough schedule and played heads-up ball, even though they won only 5 out of 17 contests in their regular season."

The LHS casaba artists broke into the win column in their first contest of the season against the Wildcats of Kellogg. The Tigers came out on the long end of a 55-36 score.

Lewis & Clark (Spokane) hoopsters found the going rough when they clashed with the cagers from Bengalville on New Year's eve. Final score was LHS 54, L & C 36. On January 7 the Moscow Bears played hosts to the Bengals, who proved to be bad guests, pawing the Bears 56-44. Other wins came over Moscow, February 10, by a score of 51-41, and two additional victories over the Bears, two out of three tilts in the District go-round for the right to represent the second district in the State play-offs. On February 7 the Tigers downed Pomeroy 43-30.

Clarkston led the list of Bengal beaters by putting a jinx on the LHS crew and taking the four-game Twin City series. Scores in the games were: Jan. 17, 32-38; Jan. 31, 33-42; Feb. 14, 37-45, and Feb. 21, 42-43.

The Vikings of Coeur d'Alene handed the Bengals defeats in two contests. John Rogers, Central Valley, Pomeroy, Walla Walla, and Orofino eked out wins against the Bengals.

Five members of the 1949-50 crew will be back to play ball for LHS next year. They are Bud Nelson, Gary Barton, Cub Grimm, Dick Dodel and Don McIntyre. Other members of the half century squad included Tom Flynn, Milton Johnson, Jack Fairley, Dave Powell, Dave Clements, Bill Taylor and Sam Skillern.

Future LHS Hoopsters

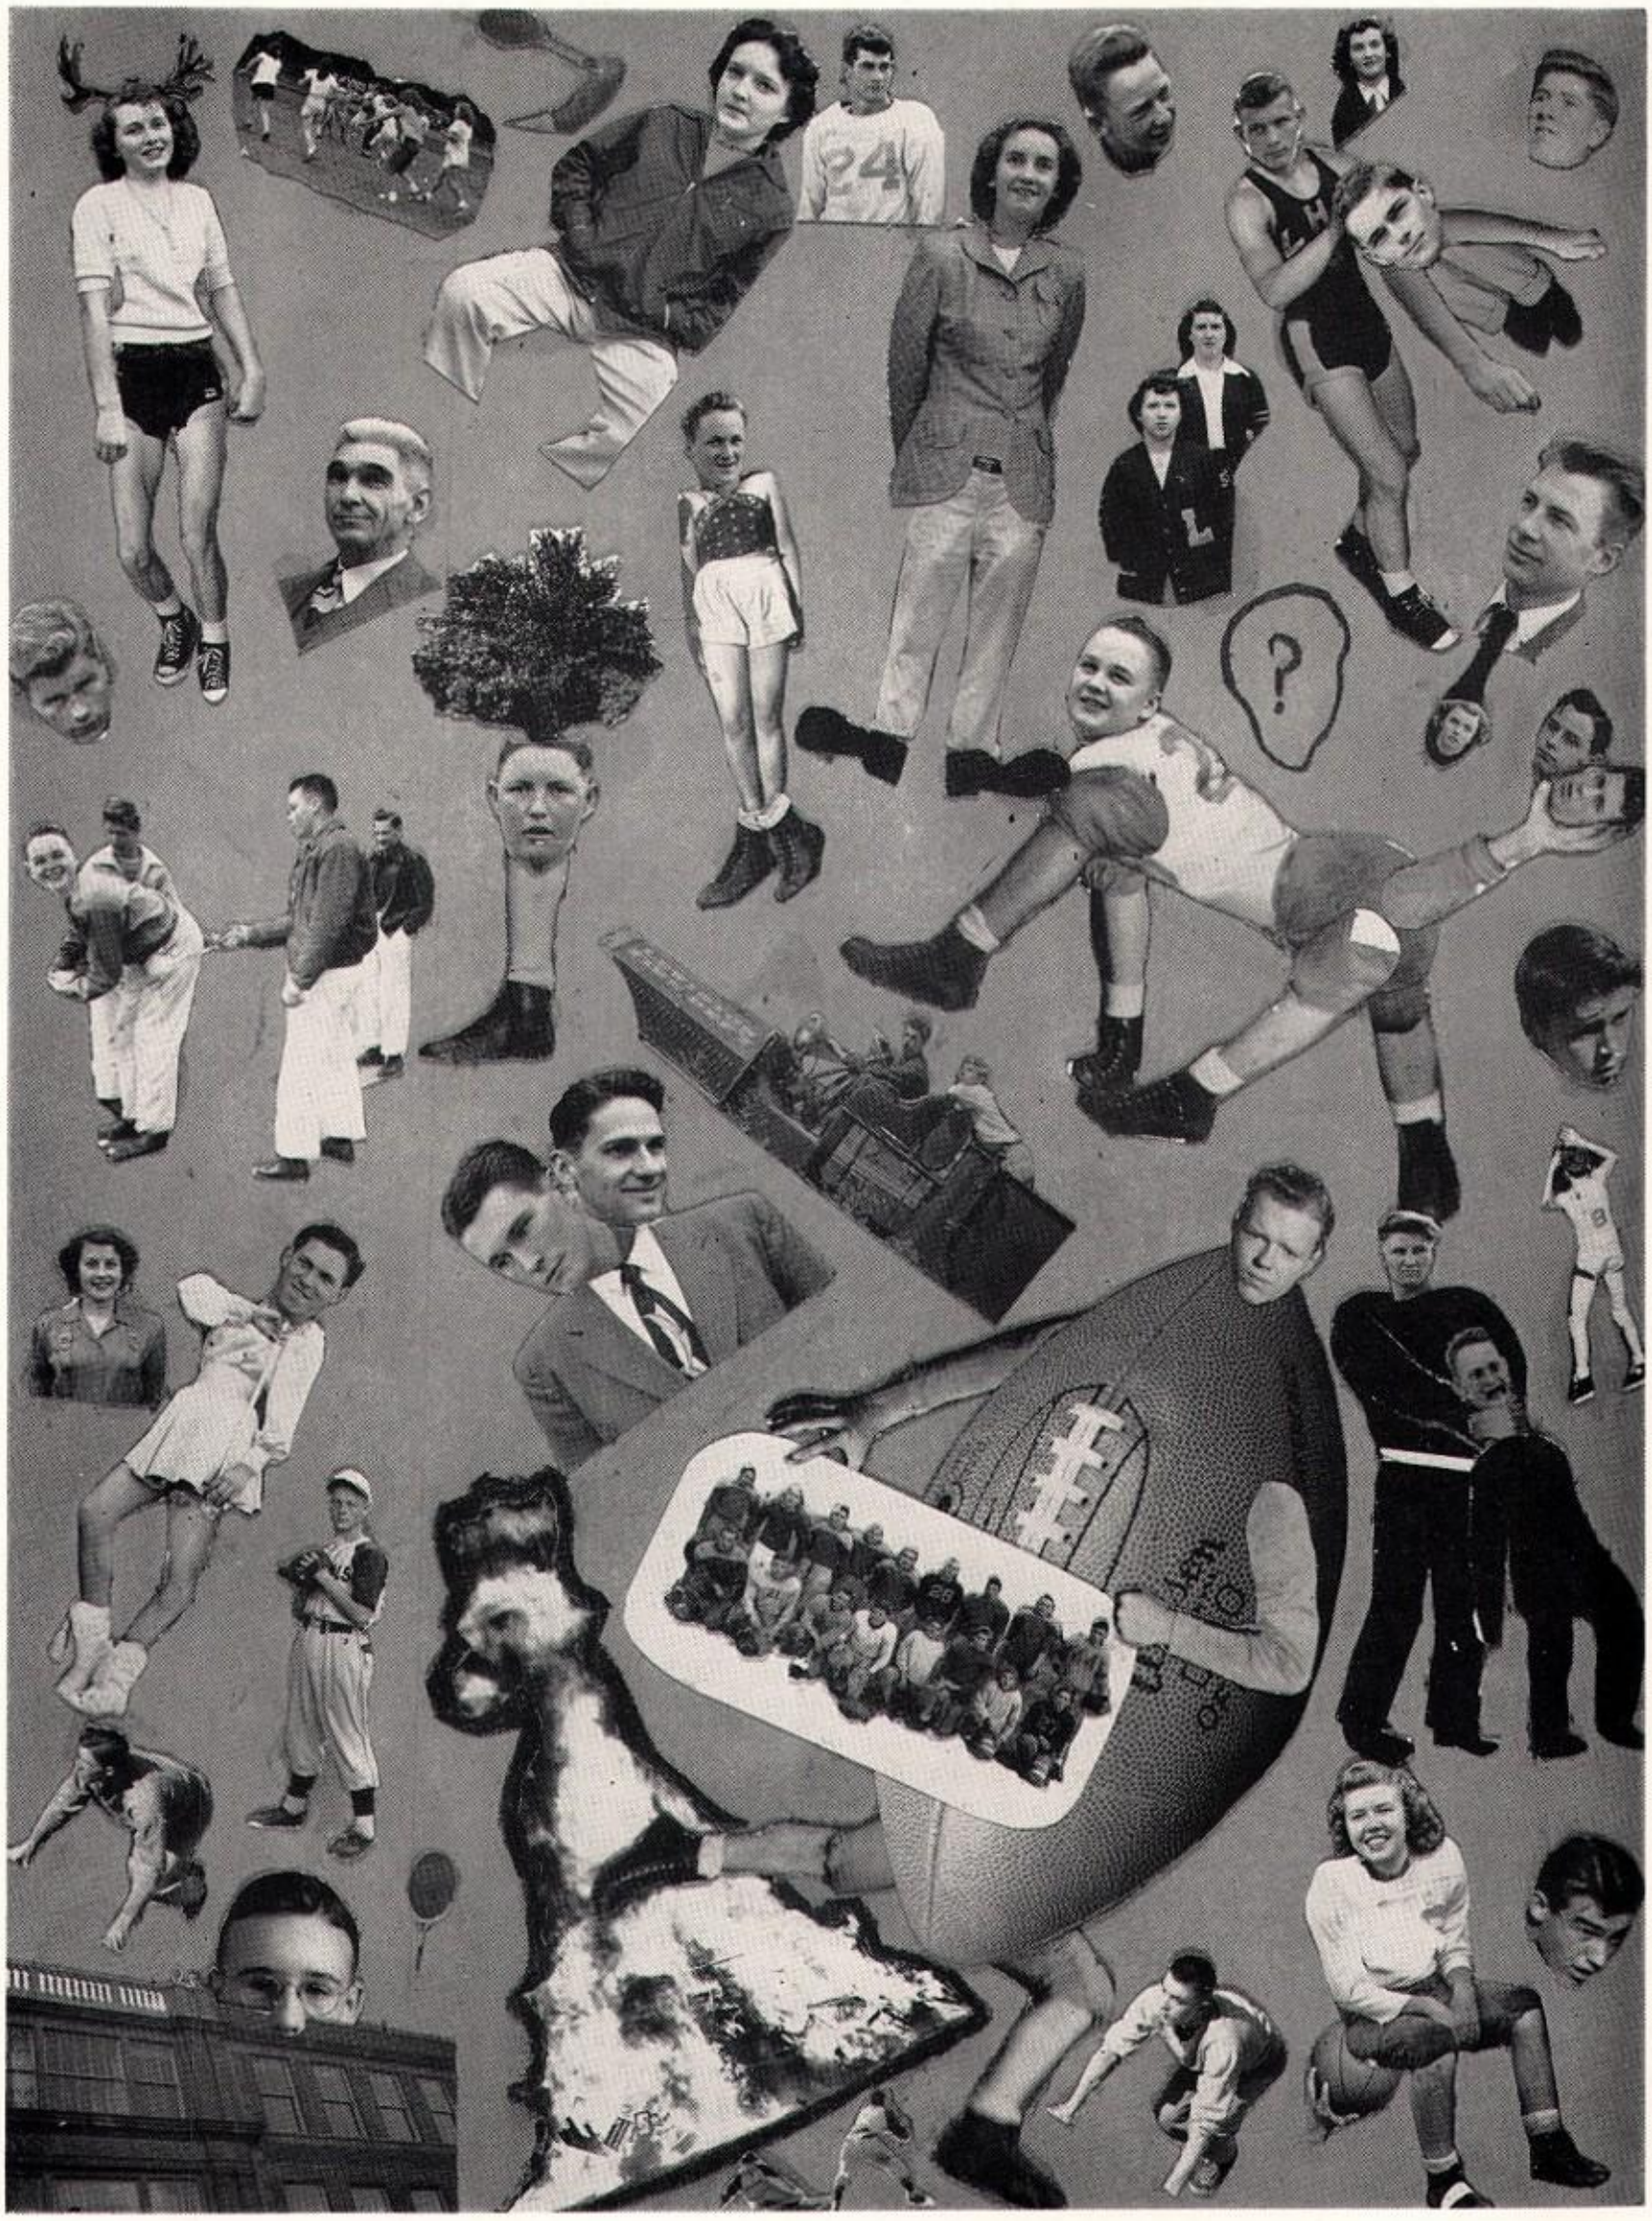
Frosh Hoopsters Show Well

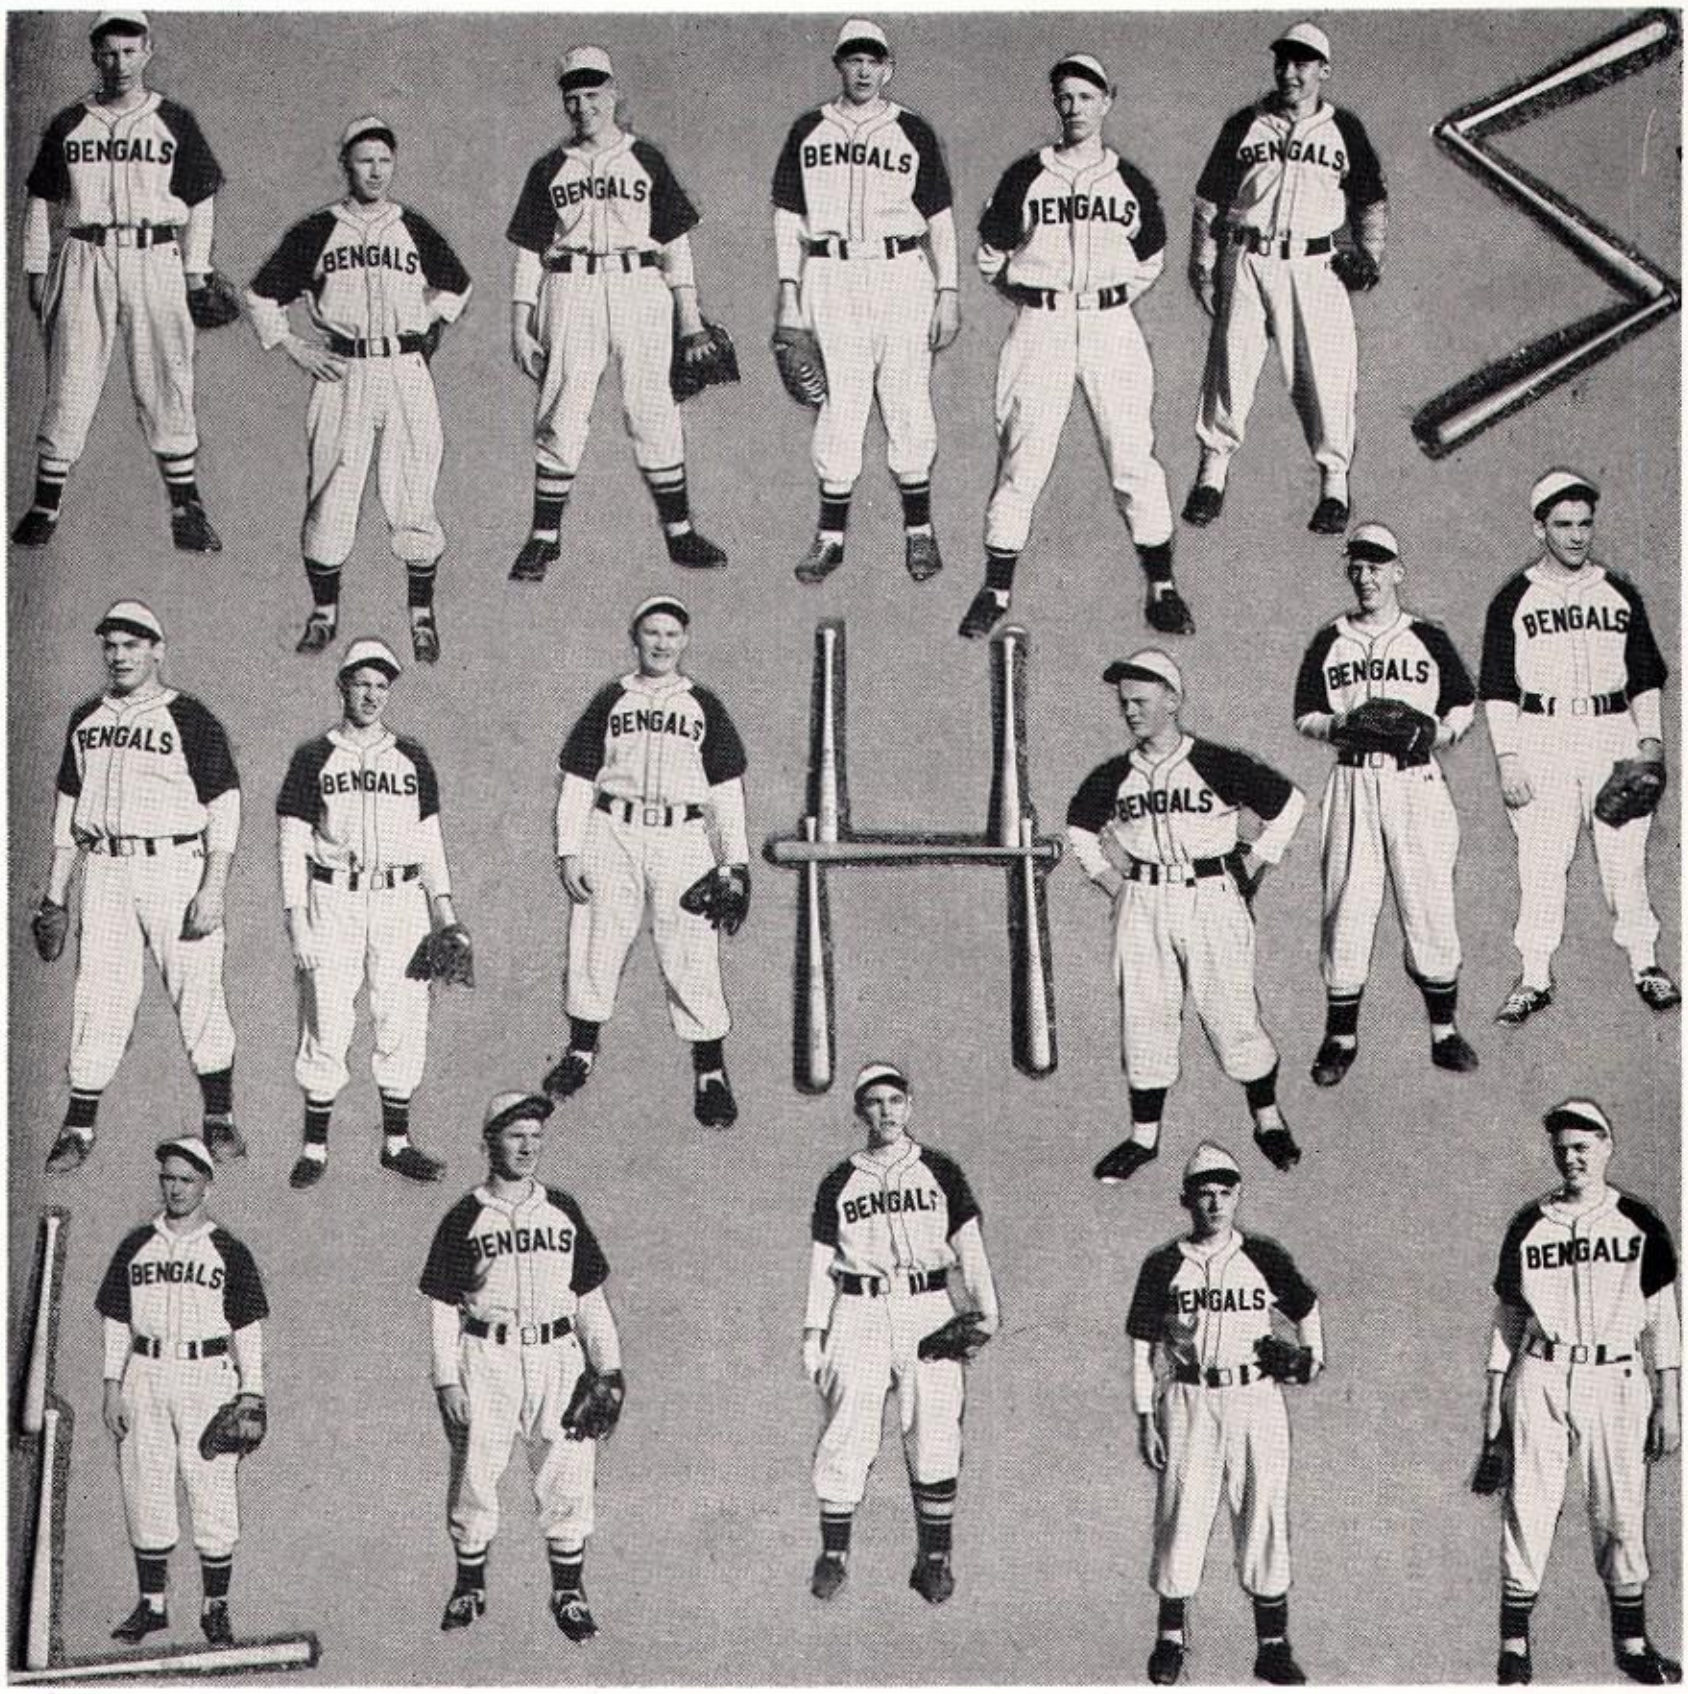
With a record of four wins and one loss, Frosh hoopsters under the direction of Coaches John Evans and Bob Williams ended a successful basketball season February 9 by defeating the Anatone sharpshooters 32-26 for the second time during the season. The Frosh also held wins over Asotin and Colton. The lone loss came in the first Colton tilt. Starting five included Bill Boie, center; Jim Pingree and Ervin Hill, guards; Jim Dammon and Ronald Hagan, forwards.

Girls' L Club Active

For the 1949-50 season, 25 coed athletes were members of the Girls' L Club. Membership was obtained by earning points either in GAA or by playing on the tennis team. For the L Club sweater 500 points were required, but a girl wasn't a member of the club until she earned her L, which was worth 750 points. For this year's project, girls have patrolled at noon movies and at football games along with the Boys' L club. Officers for the season were Irma Gupton, president; Bettye Judd, vice-president; Betty Riggs, secretary, and Patsy Hart, treasurer. Mrs. Mae Miesen was advisor.

Proud Wearers of Coed "L's"





Swatsman Faced Heavy Schedule

The Kendrick Tigers were the first swatcrew to face the diamond boys from Bengalville in the 1950 season. The Bengals won the game 12-0. The Genesee Bulldogs were the second squad to feel the weight of the Tigers as they fell to a 6-0 score.

On Friday, April 14, the Bengals met the Central Valley Bears in Spokane, and they came home with one win out of the doubleheader. They won and lost by the same score of 3-0.

The 1950 schedule included games with Kendrick, Genesee, Orofino and Central Valley. A home-and-home series was arranged with West Valley and Walla Walla, and three games were scheduled with Clarkston before the District, Regional and State tournaments in May.

Cindermen Burn Track

Starting the 1950 season with only seven returning lettermen, the LHS cinder crew faced one of the toughest track schedules in the school's history.

The Bengal tracksters opened their season on Saturday, April 15, by winning the four-team meet at Clarkston. Lewiston scored 65$^{1}/_{2}$ points to edge Clarkston, Pullman and Potlatch for the first place honors. Other meets scheduled included the Inland Empire meet, April 22; Clarkston dual, April 26; the Lewiston Invitational, May 6; and the District tournament, May 13. The state tourney was scheduled for May 20.

Approximately 70 boys answered the first call for turnout in March. Wes Lathen was in charge of coaching.

G. A. A. Gals Learn Sports

Getting out every Tuesday and Thursday nights from 4 to 5, athletic minded lassies had an eventful season in the Girls' Athletic Association.

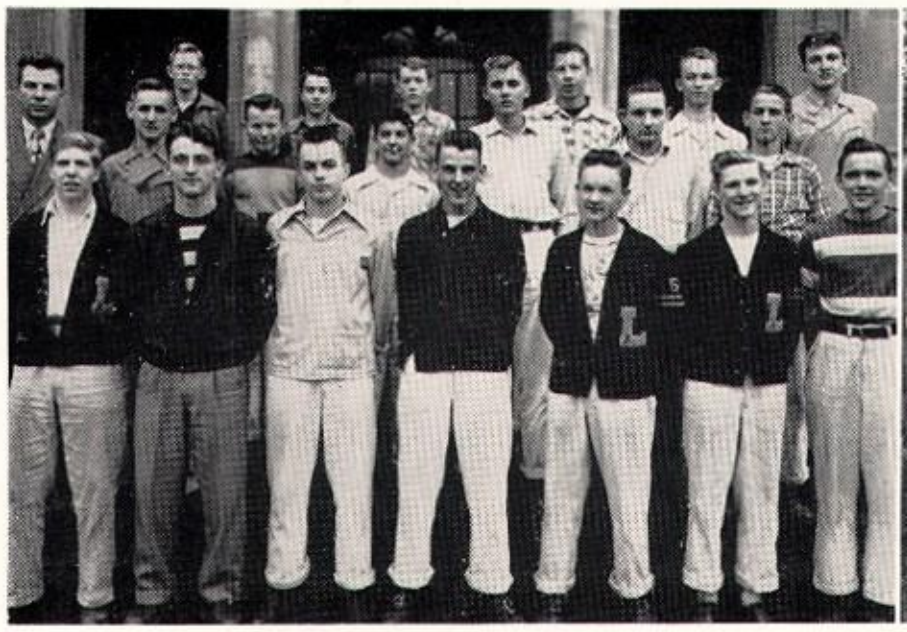
GAA gals, under the coaching and leadership of Mrs. Mae Miesen, participated in baseball and tennis for fall activities; basketball and bowling took the highlights in winter months.

Both basketball and bowling teams took part in tournaments. The bowling teams bowled against Clarkston once, the A team taking Clarkston's A team 3-0, and the Lewiston B coeds taking Clarkston B keglers 2-1.

Irma Gupton was high bowler with 127 points, while Yvonne Capitan took second place with 112 points, and Marie Heese was third with 100 points.

In spring sports, GAA girls took part in softball and tennis, and this year they even boasted of a track team.

Officers for the 1949-50 season were Yvonne Capitan, president; Louise Imthurn, vice-president, and Melvine Hill, secretary-treasurer. Norma Riggers was point recorder and Mrs. Mae Miesen was advisor.



Endurance Men Complete Successful Season — Bengal cross-country runners ended a six-match season with a 500 percent win average. The squad, coached by Wes Lathen, clashed with such teams as Potlatch, Clarkston and Moscow, and they placed second in the annual Banana Belt meet. Most of the members of the crew took a winter rest after their season was completed and started track turnouts at the first sign of spring.

Netmen Face Top Teams — LHS netmen braved the March winds and started spring turnout ten strong. The net artists clashed with some of the top racquet squads in the Northwest. Bob Love and Don Schmidt were the only returning lettermen. The crew, which was guided by John Evans, also included Pete Woelfel, Bill Boie, Gene Baldeck and Bill Zirbel.

Junior Tigers Post 14-7 Record

Fourteen wins against seven losses was the joint record hung up by the two Tiger B squads during their 1949-50 hoop season.

Twenty-four lads, coached by Bill Eimers, who composed the two crews, scored 708 points against 602 tallies by their opponents. Gary Barton took scoring honors, tallying 89 points in 13 games. Mel Ruark was second with 81 points scored in 15 contests. Other leading scorers included Arlen Nicholson 76, Ron Crozier 67, Ron Webb 66, Junior Bateman 60, Bob Packwood 49, Dave Borders 43, Dick Riggs 40, John Wilkins 30, and Don Tank 23.

Team No. 3 won the intra-squad tournament held after the regular season ended. Players on the team were Nicholson, Webb, Riggs, Ron Pingree, Charles Alford, Tommy Miles and Bill Steibert.

Junior High Activities

HONOR SOCIETY—Twelve Honor Society members, Blanche Pearson, Zelma Berry, Phyllis White, Howard Scott, John Hughes, La Verne Alley, Katheryn Christianson, Helen Hopkins, Virginia Du Bruille, Marion Cone, Marilyn Mitchell and Barbara Rosekrans, completed an active 1949-50 year with La Verne Alley, president; Katheryn Christianson, vice-president; and John Hughes, secretary. Membership was based on scholarship, citizenship and leadership. Mrs. Billie Fitzgerald was advisor.

GIRLS CLUB—A busy season was ended for the Girls Club. Among their many activities they held their annual dance and a mother-daughter banquet. Representatives were elected from home rooms for this club. Barbara Rosekrans was president; Barbara Weeks, vice-president; Nancy Flomer, secretary; and Arlene Maynard, treasurer. Louise Clodius was advisor.

CIRCLE L—500 points were earned by a student on the basis of scholarship or school service to become a member of Circle L in the 1949-50 term. Thirty-one members were enrolled this year with Helen Ruple, president; Betty Miiller, vice-president; Zelma Berry, secretary and Marilyn Mitchell, treasurer. The club emblems were a purple and gold circle on a white sweater. Mrs. Ruth Petterson was advisor.

BOYS CLUB—Better cooperation, development of school spirit and the handling of boys problems were the objectives for the Boys Club under the supervision of George Justice. Projects for the 1949-50 year included an electric clock for the gym, the annual dance and a boys smoker. Officers were Buddy Baldwin, president; Jim Peltier, vice-president and Robert Morrell, secretary.

STUDENT COUNCIL—A new bulletin board was presented to the junior high in 1949-50 year by the student council. Ervin Hill was president; Vincent Pearson, vice president and Roger Williams, secretary. Students were elected by home rooms for student council. The council's main purpose was better relations between students and teachers through group participation in certain phases of school government. Harry Warren was advisor.

Junior High Activities

CAMERA CLUB—To instruct as many students as possible in photography as a hobby was the aim of the 11 Camera Club members. Roger Aske, Dwight Williams, Richard Duran, Gary Henley, Miriam Williamson, Dawn Ann Smith, Lorraine Belton, Ron Purviance, Marilyn Mulroney, Jackie King and Janet Schulze were the active members with Ron Purviance, president; Dawn Ann Smith, vice-president, and Marilyn Mulroney, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Grayce R. Tady was advisor.

KITTEN'S MEOW—Editor Howard Scott advisor, Mrs. Peggy (Pence) Hoaglin and the 30 staff members kept the presses rolling in a successful year for the junior high newspaper, the Kittens Meow. Staffers were chosen on the basis of their willingness to work and the Meow's objective was to publish junior high news for the enjoyment of the readers.

G. A. A.—Speedball, volleyball, basketball, softball, badminton, tennis and bowling were the sports L. J. H. S. coeds followed in 1949-50. Janny Lou Lambert was president; Carol Wachal, vice-president, and Donna Coon, secretary. Mrs. Merl L. Kytonen was advisor.

BOYS TOURNOUT—Eighty seventh and eighth grade boys turned out for boys sports in the 1949-50 season. A midget L letter rewarded the faithful. Mr. C. G. Sarbacher was advisor.

GIRLS GLEE CLUB—An active year came to a close for the 25 members of the junior high glee club. Under the direction of Perry Williams they performed at the spring concert, the music festival and the Christmas concert.

MIXED CHORUS—Forty members of the junior high mixed chorus completed a busy year under the direction of Perry Williams. This group of songsters participated in the spring festival, the Christmas concert and the music festival.
